

President Roosevelt, who was a victim of polio, supported the "March of Dimes." He received help and encouragement from his wife Eleanor.